

February 2008

Dear Praying Friends,

We had a rough start to this month. January is always a tricky month when traveling in the Northern Midwest. Our first weekend we were covered in fog all the way home from two great meetings in Wisconsin. The second weekend I was on my way to Hayward, Wisconsin, when I had to stop 200 miles away because of snow. After talking with the pastor, he kindly rescheduled for the summer. Thank you for praying for our safety. I saw four cars in the ditch and I was praising God that I was not in one of those cars.

Our meeting at Hazelwood Baptist in Clayton, Indiana, went very well. We had a great time talking with many of the young people and catching up with a few friends. We could tell that they loved missions - what a blessing.

I have been quite busy with teaching and coaching many elementary basketball games. Sara and Marshall enjoy going to as many as they can. Marshall only likes to go because he gets to eat popcorn! Thank you for praying for me as I try and make good use of my time, please continue.

This month we will be in Mackinaw City, Michigan, and near Kansas City, Kansas. Please pray for safety as we travel. Also, please pray that churches would understand the great need in Australia and be willing to take part in reaching Australians for Christ.

A few weeks ago we were able to spend the afternoon with the Wivells, who are BMM missionaries in Melbourne. It was nice to hear about the new students at the Bible college and they encouraged us to stay faithful on deputation.

Thank you for all of your prayers, encouragement, and financial support.

His Servants,

Mark & Sara Pitts
